

WINTER 2010 ER&D Courses

Teachers can earn Master Plan Points (MPPs) UPON COMPLETION of all sessions

EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH AND DISSEMINATION (ER&D) COURSES

UTD will be offering several of its Educational Research & Dissemination (ER&D) courses during Winter 2010 at locations throughout the district. Engaging teachers and ESPs in "high quality" professional development to help improve student achievement is a major goal of UTD. Based on research with demonstrated applicability for classroom teachers, these AFT developed courses can be used for inservice credit for certificate renewal, i.e. earning Master Plan Points. ER&D courses to be offered include:

- INSTRUCTIONAL STRATEGIES THAT WORK (Part A)
- FOUNDATIONS OF EFFECTIVE TEACHING I (Part B)
- MANAGING ANTISOCIAL BEHAVIOR (Part A)
- MANAGING ANTISOCIAL BEHAVIOR (Part B)
- ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNERS- CULTURE, EQUITY AND LANGUAGE
- STRATEGIES FOR STUDENT SUCCESS (Part B)
